F O R E W O R D

In the pages that come we have attempted to preserve something of life at Appalachian as we have lived it and loved it. We hope that we have recorded something that will reflect our school, its activities, and the friendly atmosphere of our campus. We have tried to picture Appalachian during working hours and during play. These are the things we have attempted to do. We will have succeeded if in future years this volume recalls memories of your college days and helps to keep them vivid as long as the spirit of Yosef exists in the hearts of Appalachian students. And now, we present to you the 1955 RHODODENDRON and . . .

dedication

For one whose sympathy, understanding and loving counsel have endeared her to all who know her and has made her such a vital part of life on our campus and for one whose friendship has meant so much to all of us . . . We the staff of the 1955 RHODODENDRON do dedicate this volume to one whom we respect so highly and love so dearly . . .

MAC SMITH

We honor one to whom the outcome of the game mattered not so much as the good sportsmanship throughout the game—not only on the athletic field but in the Game of Life. For his citizenship and sportsmanship, the RHODODENDRON staff and the student body of Appalachian State Teachers College pay tribute to a great athlete. . . . MAC SMITH.

THE FEATURES

A black and white portrait of a young woman, Alice Swann, who is the Queen. She is smiling and looking slightly to the right. She has dark, wavy hair styled in a vintage fashion. She is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, dress with a high collar and a dark sash or belt. She is holding a large bouquet of flowers in front of her. The background is a soft, out-of-focus studio backdrop.
